Before you begin

Make a detachable rounded collar in grey cotton with a cream edge and ribbon tie. The special half-double-crochet row creates the eyelets for threading the ribbon.

At the end of every row except the last, add a turning chain even when it is not repeated in the wording. Follow the explicitly stated ch 2 after row 2. Carry the centre marker upward as you work.

Materials and stitches

Size 3, 100% cotton yarn in grey (C1) and cream (C2); matching cream ribbon, such as silk ribbon; a 3 mm crochet hook, or a smaller hook if you crochet loosely; stitch marker and yarn needle.

Abbreviations

sc = single crochet; ch = chain; hdc = half double crochet; m = make; st = stitch. Increase by making 2 sc into the indicated source-row stitch. Decrease by working 2 stitches together. Crab stitch is reverse single crochet, worked in the opposite direction to ordinary sc.
